

---

The Redwood National Junior Basketball team, sponsored by CAS, finished in the top three in the Silicon Valley NJB All-Star tournament to qualify for the 2009 national championship tournament. The group of third and fourth grade girls competed in the National Junior Basketball All-Star National Championship tournament in Los Angeles in April 2009. Defeating teams from as far away as Missouri; the team went 5-0 and won the national championship capped by a thrilling 34-32 finals win against a team from Cypress, California.

---